SIR,

Subject : Sanction to the purchase of B.R.C.fabric (10 rolls) from Messrs. Heatley and Gresham Ltd.,Madras for the Industrial subsidised Housing at Kesare, Mysore.

I write to state that 10 rolls of B.R.C.fabrics were obtained from the above company during April-May 1954 for roofing work for the above labour quarters at Kesare, Mysore. The materials were obtained under special circumstances as M.S.rods could not be obtained in sufficient quantities at the time for urgent use on works and besides the cost of these materials per square worked out nearly equal to that of M.S.rods, at the concessional rate offered by the firm. The Chairman, Labour Housing Corporation also approved the proposal in view of the non-availability of M.S.rods at that time. The firm has quoted a rate as noted in the margin with further rebate of 2½% on the aggregate bills.

I enclose herewith a copy of letter No.S.P.C.44192 dated 14-10-1954 from the Secretary, Stores Purchase Committee, Bangalore, in this behalf and state that as the firm is not in the approved list of the S.P.C, and as the materials were obtained for urgent completion of works, kind sanction of Government may be obtained and communicated for the purchase of materials at the rates quoted by the firm. The cost is recovered from the contractors to whom the material was issued for roofing instead of M.S.rods and no extra financial commitment to the Board or the Labour Housing Corporation
